THE PRESENT STUTATION.

The word just the state of the word to the students of the state of the word to the wo enced by the existence of these unpaid paper prom-ises. It is a part not only of honor but of wisdom that these excrescences upon our financial system be brushed away once and forever, and it is the duty of the country to bring Congress to the necessity of seeing it in that light. The week's sales at the Exchange foot up a total of 2.384.817 shares, against 2.894,036 shares the proceding six days. Following is an epitome of the

JEALOUSY AND DRINK.

A GERMAN PORTER CUTS HIMSELP WITH A KNIFE AND RAZOR AND THEN SHOOTS HIM-A desperate attempt to commit suicide was made at an early hour yesterday morning by John F

Meyer, a German, who resides on the second floor of the tenement house No. 29 Orchard street. It appears from the statements made by the man's friends that he was discovered lying in bed with a deep and ugly gash in his throat. He was breathheavily at the time. By his side were found a jackknife, a razor and a revolver. Two chambers of the revolver were emptied and it is supposed that wounds in Meyer's right temple and leit side, in the region of the heart, were made by the buliets. A surgeon, who was immediately summoned, pronounced him seriously injured and ordered his removal to the Chambers Street Hopital. The would-be suicide was a porter by occupation and had for the past three weeks been drinking heavily. When he retured on Saturday night he exhibited signs of being delirious. His mother-in-law, living in the same house, told him he looked ill, and asked him if she should send for a physician. "It's useless to do it now." he replied, "for I want to take a good sleep. You may send for one as early is you like in the moraing." He closed the door of his apartment and afterward went to bed. The lady remained up for some time after her son-in-law, but did not hear any house in his room. About half-past eight o'clock yesterday morning she want to his door to call him for breakfast, and then discovered him lying on the bed in a large pool of blood. Meyer was conscious, and, when asked why he had attempted to kill himself, said that he was "tired of ine." He muttered something about his wife having deserted him and then became insensible. In that condition he was taken to the hospital. Meyer was married eighteen sweather to the hospital. Meyer was married eighteen years ago, and until within a short time since lived happily with his wife. He had four children, who are all dead. For a number of years he kept a lager beer seloon in the First ward, but in the early part of last year he suadenly disappeared. He remained away from home until last November. During the time he was abent he was in Memphis, Tenn., and, shortly after he reached this city, he was stricken down with yellow fever. His wite nursed him until April of the present year, when he was able to leave the house. Then he procured a position as porter in a dry and left side, in the region of the heart, were made

"FAT, BUT NOT GRAZY."

Fritz Bender, very fat and very angry, toddled into Essex Market Court yesterday. The excitement he was under left his voice in the weakest condition. He mounted the witness stand with the aid of his stout stick, gasped once or twice for breath and then confronted the magistrate with a fierce look.
